

Paris

The rich language and culture of France experienced through the lens of an internship, or stage, offers students an extraordinary opportunity to integrate into Parisian life. Students fine-tune their language studies and develop practical professional skills. All students are required to have an appropriate level of French to function effectively in the workplace.

Some Industry Sectors

Business & Economics

Chambers of commerce
IT & telecommunications
Fashion and cosmetic companies
Financial services

Communications

Public relations/ advertising/marketing agencies
PR in fashion
Marketing or PR departments
Press relations in multinationals
Internet advertising/marketing firms

Media

Newspapers/magazines
Foreign media

Art & Culture

Art galleries
Art auction houses
Art magazines
Museums
Urbanism
Interior design firms
Dance/theater companies

Healthcare, Psychology &

Social Services

Hospitals (only observations)
Drug/AIDS awareness
Social work
Community center
Women/homeless shelters

Politics, Law & NGOs

Political parties
Think tanks
Non-profit organizations Advocacy groups & non-governmental organizations
Embassies
Labour Unions

Education

Primary schools
Language schools
Educational policy organizations
Children's cultural centers

Hospitality Administration

Travel & tourism offices
Special events organizations

“The work I did at my internship in Paris helped me tremendously in my first job as public relations assistant at Vera Wang. I still get lots of compliments for knowing how to speak French...it gives one the extra point in getting a job.”

– Minette W., Boston University, intern at Bureau Export de la Musique

“My Paris internship gave me the confidence that I needed to enter the real world and pursue my dream of working in TV.”

– Jamie D., University of Michigan, intern at Warner Brothers